

Climate Change Lead Negotiator for Alliance of Small Island States

The Government of Nauru seeks to appoint a Lead Negotiator to represent Nauru as Chair of the Alliance of Small Island States in negotiations under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change.

This is a unique opportunity to play a leading role in the international response to climate change. The ideal candidate will have knowledge of the Pacific region and international climate change law and politics, as well as negotiating experience at a senior level.

The position is full time, based in New York, with a salary range of $100,000-$120,000 USD, depending on experience and qualifications.

The government is also seeking a climate change adviser to the President, based in Nauru.

For these and other job descriptions please visit www.pacificsids.org/aosispositions and to apply please send curriculum vitae and a writing sample to the Nauru Mission to the United Nations at nauru@un.int. The positions will be open until filled.